

Privacy Notice

This privacy notice discloses the privacy practices for the Pennsic University's Thing website, the website used for registering and scheduling classes taught at the University. This privacy notice applies solely to information collected by this website. It will notify you of the following:

- What personally identifiable information is collected from you through the website, how it is used and with whom it may be shared.
- What choices are available to you regarding the use of your data.
- The security procedures in place to protect the misuse of your information.
- How you can correct any inaccuracies in the information.

Information Collection, Use, and Sharing

In order to use this website, a user must first complete the registration form. During registration a user is required to give certain information (name, phone number, and email address). This information is used to contact you about the classes you plan to teach during the Pennsic War.

We are the sole owners of the information collected on this site. We only have access to/collect information that you voluntarily give us via registration or other direct contact from you. We will use your information to communicate with you, regarding the classes you plan to teach during the Pennsic. We will not sell or rent this information to anyone.

Your name and contact information will be shared with the Pennsic University staff to facilitate scheduling your classes and to contact you in the event that you do not show up to teach a scheduled class. As part of running the Pennsic War event, we may share this information with other Pennsic staff departments and/or Cooper's Lake staff in order to allow them to contact you in the event of an emergency or as part of Pennsic event business.

Your Access to and Control Over Information

You may opt out of any future contacts from us at any time. You can do the following at any time by contacting us via the email address on our website:

- See what data we have about you, if any.
- Change/correct any data we have about you.
- Have us delete any data we have about you.
- Express any concern you have about our use of your data.

Security

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit sensitive information via the website, your information is protected both online and offline. Wherever we collect sensitive information, that information is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way. You can verify this by looking for a lock icon in the address bar and looking for "https" at the beginning of the address of the Web page.

While we use encryption to protect sensitive information transmitted online, we also protect your information offline. Only Pennsic Staff who need the information to perform a specific job are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers in which we store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment.
